Morgan and Garcia Awarded Jimmy McCormick Memorial Scholarship

For Overall Performances at 2010 Water Ski National Championships

POLK CITY, Fla.- Jenna Morgan 13 of Odessa, Fla. and Taylor Garcia 12, of Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif. were awarded the annual Jimmy McCormick Memorial Scholarship by achieving the most National Overall Points in the Boy 2 and Girl 2 Divisions at the 2010 Water Ski National Championships, held in Wilmington, Illinois. August 8-14.

The McCormick Scholarship is funded by MasterCraft and Correct Craft boat companies and is administered by the American Water Ski Educational Foundation (AWSEF). Each winner receives a $500.00 scholarship to be held in escrow by the Foundation until he or she enters a two or four-year accredited college as a full time student. The money must be used within one year after the recipient's graduation from high school or the money reverts back to the Foundation Scholarship Fund.

Jenna placed seventh in slalom (2.5@32 off), sixth in tricks (3360 pts), and first in jump (87 ft.).

Garcia placed fourth in slalom (2@35 off), first in jump (118 ft) and seventh in tricks (2990 pts) at this years Nationals.

The American Water Ski Educational Foundation (AWSEF) was founded in 1968 as the non-profit parent organization of the Water Ski Hall of Fame and Museum. AWSEF is dedicated to the preservation of the traditions of one of America's most popular family recreational activities and encouragement of and education in the safe enjoyment of the sport of water skiing.

In addition to administering the Jimmy McCormick National Boy 2 and Girl 2 Scholarship $500 each, the Boy 1 and Girl 1 are funded by Jim Grew $1,000 each, the Girl 3 is funded by Jody Johnson and the Boy 3 by Dr. Mike Morgan, $1000 each. In addition, the Foundation annually funds six individual scholarships, if selected by the Scholarship and Financial Aid Committee. Students interested in applying for an AWSEF Scholarship can request information or an application in writing to AWSEF Scholarship, 1251 Holy Cow Road, Polk City, FL 33868-8200 or download the application from the foundation web site www.waterskihalloffame.com.
